

Determine your score by totaling the points for each question, then find out what kind of driver you are on the scale below.

Score: (A= 4) (B= 3) (C= 2) (D= 1)

(42-56) You may be an aggressive driver. Remember the rules of the road. Don't take the actions of other drivers personally. Take note of your own habits and behaviors behind the wheel. Do your best to make changes and become a safe and courteous driver. Remember, you're setting an example.

(28-41) At times you can be an aggressive driver. Be careful to not let the traffic congestion or actions of others "get on your nerves." Do your best to remember the rules of the road. Try giving yourself more time to get to your destination. Practice being a safe and courteous driver.

(14-27) Most of the time, you are a safe and courteous driver. You may occasionally let the traffic "get to you." Don't take the actions of other motorists personally. Try to give yourself a little extra time to reach your destination. Remember, you are a safe and courteous driver.

(0-13) You are a "Joe Cool Commuter." You are polite and don't take the actions of other discourteous drivers personally. You set an excellent example for others. Keep up the good work!